SITUATION SUMMARY

Governor Brown Signs Drought Legislation:

Governor Edmund G. Brown Jr. signed legislation on 03/01/14 to assist drought-affected communities and provide funding to better use local water supplies. The legislation had broad, bipartisan support. SB 103 passed 34-2 in the Senate and 64-3 in the Assembly. SB 104 passed 33-3 in the Senate and 68-1 in the Assembly. The bills provide $687.4 million to support drought relief, including money for housing and food for workers directly impacted by the drought, bond funds for projects to help local communities more efficiently capture and manage water and funding for securing emergency drinking water supplies for drought-impacted communities.

Highlights of the legislation include:

Enhancing Water Conservation and Improving Water Supplies

- $549 million from the accelerated expenditure of voter-approved bonds, Proposition 84 and Proposition 1E, in the form of infrastructure grants for local and regional projects that are already planned or partially completed to increase local reliability, including recapturing of storm water, expanding the use and distribution of recycled water, enhancing the management and recharging of groundwater storage and strengthening water conservation.
- $30 million from the Greenhouse Gas Reduction Fund to the Department of Water Resources (DWR) for direct expenditures and grants to state and local agencies to improve water use efficiency, save energy and reduce greenhouse gas emissions from state and local water transportation and management systems.
- $14 million for groundwater management across the state, including assistance to disadvantaged communities with groundwater contamination exacerbated by the drought.
- $10 million from the Greenhouse Gas Emissions Fund for the California Department of Food and Agriculture to invest in irrigation and water pumping systems that reduce water use, energy use and greenhouse gas emissions.
- $15 million from the General Fund for Emergency Drinking Water Fund to address emergency water shortages due to drought.
- $13 million from the General Fund to augment the California Conservation Corps and local community conservation corps to expand water use efficiency and conservation activities and to reduce fuel loads to prevent catastrophic fires.

Assisting Californians Disproportionately Impacted by the Drought

- $25.3 million from the General Fund for food assistance, which will be structured to maximize the potential federal drought assistance that can be provided to provide food assistance to those impacted by the drought.
- $21 million from the General Fund and federal funds for housing related assistance for individuals impacted by the drought.

SITUATION SUMMARY

Current Weather:

Northern California

General rain accumulations in Northern California in the past 24 hours have ranged between 0.01 inches in Chico to 1.38 inches in the Mining Ridge area of Monterey County.

Watershed areas in northern California generally received less than 1 inch of precipitation with the Shasta Dam area receiving 0.04 inches of precipitation in the last 24 hour period. The remainder of the forecasted area has received 0.01 inches – up to 0.64 inches.

Current average snow water equivalents, percent of normal for this date

North: 19 percent (8 percent increase in 96 hours)

Central: 37 percent (8 percent increase in 96 hours)

South: 36 percent (16 percent increase in 96 hours)

Southern California

General rain accumulations in the past 24 hours have ranged from 0.36 inches in Long Beach to 3.79 inches in the Nordhoff Ridge area of Ventura County.

Southern California rainfall amounts will be light with few if any locations seeing more than a tenth of an inch. Widely scattered residual light showers along and west of the mountains will end by this evening. Additional rainfall will mostly range from one tenth of an inch or less near the coast to one tenth to one quarter inch on the coastal slopes with isolated greater amounts. Snow levels near 5500 feet will rise to 6000 to 6500 feet this afternoon and evening.

Longer Term Outlook:

The storm track will shift to northern California and the Pacific northwest next week. A series of mild Pacific weather systems will again increase chances for precipitation across northwest California. By mid-late week, additional precipitation could occur further south, including the Coast Range (with only light amounts expected south of San Francisco Bay) and the northern-central Sierra Nevada.

The Climate Prediction Center forecasts increased chances for above normal precipitation in northwest California for the period March 6-10, and near equal chances for the remainder of the state. The 8-14 day outlook indicates near equal chances throughout the state for the period March 8-14.

Snow Levels:

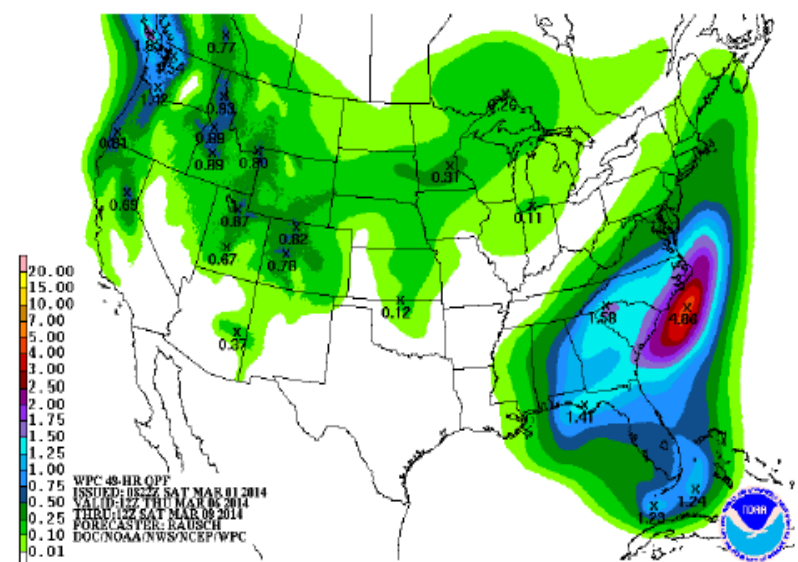

- Northern Mountains: 6500-7500 ft Sunday, rising to 7500-8500 ft Monday, further rising to 7500-10000 ft Tuesday and Wednesday
- Central and Southern Sierra: 6500-8000 ft Sunday, rising to 8000-10000 ft Monday, further rising to 9000-11500 ft Tuesday and Wednesday
- Southern Mountains: 8500-10500 ft Sunday, rising to 9000-11500 ft Monday, further rising to 12000 ft Tuesday and Wednesday

SIGNIFICANT EVENTS / ACTIVITY

Cal EOC Incident – 2014 Drought

Situational Summary: (No change) Next report Monday, March 3, 2014

- The lack of winter rain and snowfall has resulted in extremely dry conditions in many parts of the State. Reservoir levels are down significantly from where they should be on average for this time of year. If conditions continue without substantial rainfall, severe impacts to municipal water supplies, agriculture (plants and livestock) and firefighting capabilities are likely in store for the State for several months. Negative economic impacts will also result. The Governor has established a Drought Task Force to prioritize State actions needed to address these conditions. Governor Brown proclaimed a State of Emergency and directed state officials to take all necessary actions to prepare for these drought conditions. The State Operations Center (SOC) is activated to implement objectives in support of the Governor's priorities.
- Many local jurisdictions have enacted water conservation measures. The Office of Emergency Services is in close contact with counties and local officials to monitor the water conditions, agriculture and economy.
- As a result of the drought DWR has informed the customers of the State Water Project (SWP) that deliveries in 2014 will be discontinued if current dry conditions persist. Deliveries to agricultural districts with long-standing water rights in the Sacramento Valley may be cut 50 percent (the maximum permitted by contract) depending upon future snow survey results. Storage in key reservoirs now is lower than at this time in 1977, one of the two previous driest water years on record. While additional winter storms may provide a limited boost to reservoir storage and water deliveries, it would need to rain and snow heavily every other day from now until May to get us back to average annual rain and snowfall. The allocation may change depending on future storm events.

Declarations/Resolutions/Proclamations

- Monterey County Proclamation Due to the Forecasted Series of Storms:

Monterey County has proclaimed the existence of a local emergency due to a series of storms and related weather events, commencing on or about February 26, 2014 continuing through Sunday, March 2, 2014 causing flooding, mud and debris flow in areas extremely vulnerable to these threats due to post Pfeiffer Fire wildfire in December 2013. Immediate action is necessary to mitigate the effects of the local emergency; and this emergency does not permit delay from competitive solicitation to let contracts for bids. No state assistance is being requested and no Governor's Proclamation is being requested. Cal OES Coastal Region is dispatching staff to Monterey County to identify needs and provide necessary resource support from the State. Update: Monterey County EOC did not activate on Friday, 2/28/2014. Cal OES Coastal Region Emergency Services Coordinator was demobilized.

- Los Angeles County Expected Proclamation

Cal OES is expecting to receive a Proclamation for a State of Emergency in Bouquet Canyon located near Santa Clarita that was passed yesterday, February 25, 2014 by the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors. Local residents' well water levels have dropped due to silt buildup in Bouquet Creek. Recent fire and storm events have increased sediment deposits in Bouquet Canyon Creek reducing its flood carrying capacity. The reduced flood carrying capacity minimized the recharge to groundwater wells which are the sole source for potable water for approximately 150 properties in the area.
